

Adviser – Energy and Climate Partnership Department Brussels, Belgium

Orgalim | Europe's Technology Industries is looking for an Adviser to join our dynamic and growing Partnership department in the fields of Energy, Climate and Decarbonisation policy. This is an opportunity to work at one of the leading industry associations in Europe, on issues that are at the top of the EU political agenda, and key to Europe's industrial base.

Who we are

Orgalim has a team of over 30 people - 14 nationalities - representing the interests of Europe's technology industries: innovative companies spanning the mechanical engineering, electrical engineering and electronics, and metal technology branches. We are working with policymakers and stakeholders to strengthen our industries' growth and global leadership, to maximise their contribution to Europe's economy and society, and to foster a new relationship of trust between businesses and citizens.

Our Partnership department provides services to 21 associations across a diverse spectrum of technology sectors. A dedicated multidisciplinary team of advisers delivers a tailored offering ranging from monitoring to advocacy, to association management, strategy and support.

The energy transition and decarbonisation agenda is a top priority for our clients. We support them on issues such as the Fit for 55 package, the implementation of the Clean Energy Package, Smart Grids, electro-mobility, but also REACH and EU Sustainable Finance. You will have the opportunity to work with experts from some of the most innovative associations and companies in Europe. At a decisive time for Europe at the international level, you will be able to play your part in shaping an energy and climate policy agenda that supports both key societal objectives and the development of Europe's technology industries.

Job brief and responsibilities

The Adviser will support several European technology industries sector associations on energy, climate and decarbonisation policy issues, including working together with other colleagues in the Orgalim Partnership and Policy teams. We are looking for an enthusiastic, curious and hands-on colleague with excellent communication skills, a self-starter with creativity, leadership and a "can-do" attitude. The responsibilities include:

- Supporting, advising and proactively driving client sectors' advocacy efforts on energy and climate policy at EU level;
- Monitoring and reporting on policy developments;
- Driving the work in client sectors' relevant working groups and task forces, engaging directly with their members to build relationships, identify needs and deliver value;
- Drafting industry positions on relevant issues;
- Designing and implementing strategic communications plans;
- Building a strong network to EU institutions and relevant stakeholders;
- Represent client sectors in external meetings and events, including facilitation of preparation, reporting and follow-up to such events.

Your profile

- Minimum 5 years of relevant experience in European institutions, industry, associations or consultancies;
- Hold university degree;
- Demonstrate deep knowledge of EU policy issues and institutions;
- Strategic vision and planning
- Ability to analyse and present complex content adapting to the audience;
- Experience working on policy issues impacting Europe's Technology Industries;
- Working experience on energy, climate and decarbonisation policy issues;
- Ability to moderate discussions and find compromises. Proved experience in shaping multi-stakeholder positions is a plus.
- Ability to identify what needs to be done, and act proactively before being asked;
- Demonstrated strong organisational capabilities, analytical skills and strong written and oral communication skills;
- Very high proficiency in English; good knowledge of other European languages is a plus;
- Proactively identify external meetings and training opportunities for self-development and the building of knowledge and contacts;
- Critical thinking skills (e.g. ability to solve problems, ability to ask thoughtful questions) and ability to teamwork;
- Willingness to travel to meetings and events in Europe

Our offer

A full-time role in a dynamic, flexible and international working environment in Brussels where you can take initiative, responsibility and lead advocacy work.

Joining one of the leading industry associations in Brussels and being at the heart of the ongoing industrial transformation of Europe.

A competitive salary based on experiences and merits.
