¹ All Orgalim meetings need to be conducted in accordance with the relevant competition and antitrust laws. Participants are therefore reminded to refrain at all times from discussing any information which is confidential and/or which is likely to affect the commercial strategy or activities of a company. Participants are in the best position to judge what is, and what is not, commercially sensitive or confidential and so responsibility lies with the participants in the first place. Participants are also reminded to only discuss topics that are on the previously circulated and reviewed agenda. Failure to follow these guidelines may bring serious consequences for the participants as individuals, their organisations and Orgalim itself. Consequences include heavy fines. Please read the Orgalim Code on competition law compliance here, which applies to all Orgalim meetings.
